

The Anglo-German Concertina

A Social History

Volume 1

Dan M. Worrall

Concertina Press
Fulshear, Texas

The Anglo-German Concertina: A Social History, Volume 1
by Dan M. Worrall

First Edition

Published in 2009 by Concertina Press, Fulshear, Texas USA; www.angloconcertina.org.

© 2009 by Dan M. Worrall

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted, in any form or by any means, without the prior permission in writing from the author, except in the case of brief quotations embodied in articles or reviews.

ISBN 978-0-9825996-0-0

LCCN 2009913576

Cover. An aristocratic family and their servants, Limerick, Ireland ca. 1907. On the left is a woman holding a German concertina. Photograph courtesy of the National Folklore Collection, University College Dublin.

Contents

Volume 1

Introduction and Summary.....	ix
-------------------------------	----

The social world of German and Anglo-German concertinas - The evolution of playing styles and techniques - The roughness of the nineteenth-century world: some caveats

Acknowledgments.....	xvii
----------------------	------

Chapter 1. Invention, Production, and Marketing of German System Concertinas	1
--	---

Background: Concertina Types Discussed in This Book: German system concertinas – English concertinas – Duet concertinas – Chemnitz, Carlsfeld, and Bandoneon concertinas

Development of the German Concertina: Uhlig and the first German-system concertina – Uhlig’s followers expand the trade – The first tutors for the “Accordion” and “German Concertina” – Carl Zimmerman and other early builders in Saxony – Adoption, production, and export

Development of the Anglo-German Concertina: The earliest makers (George Jones, John Nickolds and John Crabb, Rock Chidley) – Other significant Victorian makers (Louis Lachenal, Charles Jeffries, Wheatstone & Company, Stanley Concertinas)

Production, Marketing, and Naming of German and Anglo-German Instruments: English production of Anglo-German concertinas – The German system dominates and finds its market niche – Popularity of German and Anglo-German concertinas, as seen in period “sightings” and tutors - Evolution of the concertina term “Anglo”

Resources: Information on historical builders - Concertina builders of today

Notes

Chapter 2. German and Anglo-German Concertinas in England	47
---	----

Background: English Social Trends in the Late Nineteenth Century

Urban Victorian Street Culture and the Concertina: Irritation and joy – The professional buskers – Street begging by children, the elderly, and the disabled – The Cockney in the late Victorian street parade – Holidays and excursions – The concertina in the minstrel craze – The Anglo-German concertina in the music halls – The Anglo-German concertina in the Salvation Army- Other Anglo-German concertina bands

German and Anglo-German Concertinas in Rural England: Hard times in the countryside – The German concertina in the country village – The concertina in the country church – The concertina in morris and sword dancing – Mummers, ritual processions, and comic bands – Christmas and New Year’s playing – A note on the relative absence of ritual activities in cities

The German System Concertina in Social Dancing: Background: a brief history of nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century English social dancing – Concertinas in urban English social dances – Concertinas in rural social dances

Social tensions: Elitism, working-class culture, and the concertina – On a lighter note: humor and the concertina

Decline and Revival: World War I: a last hurrah – Post-war decline – The last of their kind: players in the lean years – Playing styles of musicians in early recordings – The concertina revival in England– Revival concertina playing styles and techniques – A rebirth of concertina building in England

Resources: Selected recordings of English traditional music on the Anglo-German concertina - Tutors for the Anglo-German concertina in English styles - Concertina and related traditional music organizations - Concertina information

Notes

Chapter 3. The Concertina in Ireland..... 179

Introduction and Historical Background: Legends and questions - A brief review of Irish cultural geography at the time of the concertina's arrival

Arrival and Establishment: Arrival and use of the English concertina – German and Anglo-German concertinas arrive – Distribution and acceptance

German and Anglo-German Concertinas in the Cities: Street music: buskers and beggars – Charities, temperance, and the Salvation Army

The Concertina in Traditional Rural Culture: Background: Irish dance in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century – “Sightings” of the concertina in Irish dancing – The concertina and the Gaelic League – Ignored by a famous collector

A Witness to the Larger Events of the Time: Evictions and land reform – Use in civil disobedience– The new republic – Use in protests in Ulster, Orange and Green – The concertina in the diaspora

Heyday, Decline, and Survival: The concertina in everyday life - A nationwide distribution in its heyday - A popular pastime goes into decline - Survival in County Clare

The Evolution of Irish Playing Styles and Techniques: Octave playing in the era of late nineteenth century house dances - Along-the-row playing in the era of public dances - A changed paradigm: three-row ornamented playing

Into a New Era: the Concertina in the Irish Traditional Music Revival

Resources: Archives - Recordings of pre-revival players - Workshops and instruction - Tutors

Notes

Chapter 4. The Concertina at Sea..... 257

Introduction

A Compendium of Occurrences: The 1850s – The 1860s – The concertina in the whaling trade – The 1870s – A concertina-playing African-American sailor, first to the North Pole – The 1880s and 1890s – Concertinas and the Royal Navy – The concertina in the United States Navy – 1900 to 1920, and the last days of commercial sail

Analysis and Comment: Sifting through the “sightings”: ships with concertinas – Types of music played on concertinas at sea – Types of concertinas and other instruments played at sea – Decline and disappearance – The nautical concertina in period fictional literature – The concertina “revival,” cultural images, and the loss of history

Resources: Nineteenth century dance music appropriate for maritime re-enactors - Tutors - Recordings

Notes

Volume 2

Chapter 5. The Concertina and the Boers of South Africa..... 1

Introduction and Background: The concertina in Africa - A brief history colonial-era South Africa and the Boers - A note on colonial-era racial terminology

The Concertina in the Cape Colony and the Boer Republics: Cape Town – In the Boer Republics - Social dancing - A fascination with the concertina - The concertina in the Second Boer War - Entering the modern age

Traditional Boer Dance Music and Musicians: The dances – Early-twentieth-century Boer concertina players and recordings – Late-twentieth-century decline and resurgence - Modern players

The Concertinas of Boer Music

Style and Technique: Octave playing – The beginnings of chromatic playing

A Note on the Concertina in British South African Society

Resources: Concertina organizations - South African concertina builders

Notes

Chapter 6. The Concertina in Africa 41

Introduction and Background: A mixture of cultures - A note on colonial-era racial terminology

The Concertina and Cape Creole People

The Concertina and African Groups in the Cape Region: The Khoi – The Xhosa

The Concertina in Zulu and Basotho Culture: Early appearances in the Zulu homeland – Concertina transport – Basotho concertina playing

Modern Forms of South African Concertina Use: Gumboot dancing - Maskanda - Mbaqanga and township jive - The "squashbox" instrument of South Africa - Playing in the squashbox style

The Concertina in West Africa: Early appearances – Ghana's highlife and palm wine music

The Concertina in Central and East Africa: Native reactions upon first hearing the concertina – Use in the Congo and Kenya – Concertinas in Madagascar's musical culture

Resources: Publications - Recordings

Notes

Chapter 7. The Concertina in Australia..... 75

Introduction and Background

Arrival and Marketing of the Concertina

The Concertina in Rural Australian Life: Immigrants and settlers - Into the bush, by campfire light – Social dancing and other bush customs – The concertina and the miners – Bushrangers! – Aborigines, South Sea Islanders, and the concertina

The Concertina in Cities and Large Towns: Minstrel shows – Music halls, concerts, and other entertainment – Urban social dancing – Street musicians – Petty crimes and the urban concertina – The Salvation Army in Australia – Holidays and excursions – The concertina in the military

Decline and Revival: The heyday ends – The Australian folk revival – Last of their kind: surviving players of the concertina's heyday – The concertina in Australia today

Resources : Australian music and dance societies and organizations - Recordings - Information and tutors - Builders and repairers

Resources

Notes

Chapter 8. The Concertina in New Zealand..... 147

Introduction and Background

Arrival of the Concertina

The Concertina in New Zealand Life: Concerts and minstrels – Living in a man's world: timbering, mining, whaling, and soldiering – The Salvation Army in New Zealand – The Maori and the concertina - Social dancing amongst the settlers

A Last Flourish, then Silence: Decline and disappearance – The folk revival in New Zealand

Resources

Notes

Chapter 9. The Concertina in North America..... 177

Introduction

Arrival and Early Distribution: Anglo vs. English Concertinas: Music on the Social Ladder

An Instrument with Mass Appeal: Loved and despised in public places – Social dancing – Use in the Civil War – The concertina on the Mormon wagon trains – Stories of the wild west, some true – In the mining camps – The minstrels and the concertina – Vaudeville and music hall – Humor – Prominent players of the concertina's heyday

Concertina Use by Various Ethnic, Immigrant, and Social Groups: Concertinas and African-American musicians – Immigrants and the concertina – The concertina and native North Americans – Anglo use in the Salvation Army

The Early Twentieth Century: Decline and Disappearance: Decline of the concertina - The Hollywood Anglo, and arrival of clowns and girdles

The Anglo in the North American Concertina Revival: Current performers and prominent players – Literary renaissance

Resources: Organizations and workshops – Builders and repairers – American traditional music for Anglo-German concertina

Notes

Chapter 10. Transcriptions: Playing Styles and Techniques from Early

Players..... 229

Introduction: A break with the past – Playing for house dances: octaves – Playing in octaves: the basics – Stylistic differences among octave players – Irish along-the-row players – Bridging the gaps, into the future

Transcriptions of Early Recorded Players:

England 238

William Kimber: Bacca Pipes (morris dance)
 William Kimber: Double Lead Through (country dance)
 Scan Tester: Scan Tester's Schottische (schottische)
 Scan Tester: Roamin' in the Gloamin' (music hall song)
 Fred Kilroy: Blaze Away (march)
 Ellis Marshall Cross Morris (morris dance)

Ireland 244

Margaret "Baby" Creehan Sweet Biddy Daly (jig)
 Bernard O'Sullivan I Have a Bonnet Trimmed with Blue (polka)
 William Mullaly The Tory Island Reel
 John Kelly: The Crooked Road to Dublin (reel)
 Michael Doyle: The Mount Phoebus Hunt (hornpipe)
 Elizabeth Crotty: The Wind That Shakes the Barley (reel)
 Packer Russell: The Heathery Breeze (reel)
 Paddy Murphy The Dawn (reel)

South Africa 252

Hans Bodenstein: Settees (Boer schottische)
 Chris Chomse Noodshulp Polka
 Faan Harris: Soutpansberg Settees (Boer schottische)
 Faan Harris: Wals van Tant Sannie (Boer waltz)
 Jonas Mate: Mammolokoane (Sotho song)
 John Bambota: U Tugela (Zulu walking song)

Australia 257

Fred Holland The Mudgee Schottisch (schottische)
 Clem O'Neal Varsoviana (varsoviennne)
 Dooley Chapman: Lancers Tune (set dance)
 Dooley Chapman: Old Dan Tucker (minstrel tune)
 Con Klippel: Manchester Galop (galop)
 Jim Harrison: Princess Polka (polka)
 Jim Harrison Killaloo (comic Irish song)
 Charlie Ordish Kelvin Grove (polka)

Index to both volumes.....265